Amend the Law relating to the Buildings of National Schools, A.D. 1884.
Industrial Schools, and Training Colleges in Ireland.

BE it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

5 1. This Act may be cited as the Loans for Schools and Training Colleges (Ireland) Act, 1882. Short title.

2. In addition to the purposes for which loans may be made under the Landed Property Improvement (Ireland) Acts, the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland may, in such cases as they 10 may judge expedient, subject to such rules as may from time to time be made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, make loans for the purpose of assisting any person in the erection, enlargement, structural improvement, or purchase of a house to be used as a national school or a training college, or in the enlargement, structural improvement, or relief from mortgage or encumbrance of any existing national school or training college, and also 15 in the acquisition or improvement of a farm, not exceeding twenty-five acres in extent, connected with a national school or training college, to be used for the purpose of agricultural instruction.

20 Such loans shall only be made on the recommendation and subject to the rules of the Commissioners of National Education in Ireland.

3. When any loan is made under this Act, the Commissioners of Public Works may from time to time, if they think fit, insure 25 against damage by fire all buildings charged with the repayment of such loan, in such insurance office, and for such sum, not exceeding the amount of such loan, as the Commissioners think fit; and all premiums paid on account of such insurance shall be deemed to be included in every charge and security whereby the repayment of such loan is secured, and shall be forthwith recoverable in like
